

PLEASE REFER TO THE OPPORTUNITY GUIDANCE NOTES PROVIDED FOR INFORMATION ON COMPLETING EACH QUESTION.

It is worth remembering that this is a chance to “sell” your organisation to prospective volunteers, so keep your content interesting, easy to understand and to the point, focusing on the benefits to both the volunteer and your organisation’s beneficiaries. The guidance notes provides examples of this.

Please complete all numbered sections – should any areas be incomplete, we will contact you prior to putting on our database and website. All opportunities will be reviewed prior to publishing to ensure that they are inclusive, open to all and that volunteers are supported and protected. We will be in touch if we have any queries.

Privacy Statement

This privacy notice tells you about the information we collect from you when you provide us with a volunteering opportunity for publication. In collecting this information, we are acting as a data controller and, by law, we are required to provide you with information about us, about why and how we use your data, and about the rights you have over your data.

What personal data will we collect?

We collect information from you such as your name, position, telephone number and email address. This is generally not considered personal data, although there may be cases where you supply a personal or home phone number or email address, which is why we want to be explicit around how this information is used and shared. Where possible, we would encourage you to supply an organisational number or email address.

What are the purposes of processing the data?

We will use your information to keep up to date and accurate records of the people and organisations we engage with as part of our work with the local community and voluntary sector and to contact you with information which might be relevant to your work.

We need this information to provide potential volunteers with contact details for your organisation so that they may enquire direct to you about the volunteering opportunity we have published on your behalf.

We require this information to provide services as a third sector interface.

Lawful processing of personal data

Dundee Volunteer & Voluntary Action can process your information because you have given explicit consent.

What we do with your data

Your information is stored in the Milo database for the third sector interface network in Scotland. Milo is operated on the Salesforce platform and managed for us by Scottish Council for Voluntary Organisations (SCVO), acting as a data processor. You can find out more about SCVO at their website (www.scvo.org.uk).

If you ask to be made the contact for a live volunteering opportunity, the phone and email contact details you have given will be published online or in hard copy as part of the opportunity.

How long do we keep your data?

We will keep your information for as long as you are an active contact. If we do not have any contact with you for a period of three years, your information will be deleted from our system.

What are your rights?

By law, you can ask us what information we hold about you, and you can ask us to correct it if it is inaccurate.

You can also ask us to give you a copy of the information and to stop using your information for a period of time if you believe we are not doing so lawfully.

If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal data, you can contact us to have the matter investigated. Contact volunteer@dvva.scot.

If you are not satisfied with our response or believe we are processing your personal data not in accordance with the law you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office <https://ico.org.uk/>
